Shelving units can look glam and luxurious if you get the design right as shown by Carole Malloy and Michael Berzsenyi, interior designers at Josephine Design House based in Atlanta, Georgia – and we think this matching pair of brass designs are spot on.

Symmetry in interior design works its magic here and you can use units like this to showcase your favorite collectibles and why not put a vintage style wall light above them too?

Brass is the metallic to be using this year so pop in some extra storage pieces too to keep the look cohesive.
